

Gergely Bánk

Today's Plan, Tomorrow's Prosperity

About Me

With several years experience in the Energy, Banking and FMCG sectors, I am an experienced manager with a broad skill set in all areas of Finance and Risk Management. With strong organisational skills, I manage both people and resources to meet and exceed targets within deadlines without compromising quality or cost performance. My Management style is direct and honest to allow my team members to fully understand and appreciate the significance of meeting goals and objectives by focusing on their own strengths. I have deep understanding in Lean Six Sigma, Process Improvement, Project Management and Data Analytics.
